

1. The world was once dominated by rigid social norms, but the youth of the 1970s introduced a ----- of freedom, self-expression, and personal discovery.

- A) promotion
- B) movement
- C) confusion
- D) treatment
- E) hesitation

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

2. Through digital content and targeted ads, children today develop preferences and make choices with greater ----- in what toys and media they consume.

- A) involvement
- B) resentment
- C) captivity
- D) accusation
- E) suspension

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

3. In early childhood education, caregivers often adjust their speech by using -----, simplified expressions to aid young learners in grasping basic ideas.

- A) profound
- B) compatible
- C) assertive
- D) distinctive
- E) negligible

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

4. Modern communication tools allow individuals to share opinions and personal updates -----, reaching audiences across continents in seconds.

- A) massively
- B) deliberately
- C) instantaneously
- D) preferably
- E) secretly

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

5. Even after decades of colonial influence, many indigenous cultures have ----- their ancestral respect for elders and community leaders.

- A) retained
- B) denied
- C) exploited
- D) provoked
- E) separated

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

6. Researchers in developmental psychology are focused on ----- whether behavioral issues are shaped more by parenting styles or innate personality traits.

- A) making up
- B) fighting off
- C) giving away
- D) working out
- E) bringing about

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

7. In the late 1700s, researchers in Europe ----- an interest in documenting ancient human remains and -----
- this knowledge to support theories of human evolution.

- A) would gain / had applied
- B) accumulated / were using
- C) had gained / had used
- D) were gaining / would apply
- E) used to gain / are using

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

8. The lemon, likely originating in Asia, ----- its first recorded use in Mediterranean cooking in the 11th century, but its wild ancestors ----- to regions much farther east.

- A) would take / have to be traced
- B) made / could be traced
- C) makes / must have been traced
- D) has made / might be traced
- E) had made / need to be traced

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

9. The decline in brain plasticity ----- aging is a topic widely explored in neuroscience, with experiments designed to measure memory capacity ----- various contexts.

- A) in / among
- B) on / at
- C) with / for
- D) between / of
- E) to / from

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

10. Children ----- bilingual environments tend to develop stronger cognitive skills ----- those in monolingual settings.

- A) through / on
- B) from / within
- C) at / over
- D) in / than
- E) around / off

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

11. The Bedouin tribes who traveled ----- North African deserts were famed ----- their oral storytelling traditions and knowledge of desert navigation.

- A) across / for
- B) along / with
- C) over / at
- D) beyond / under
- E) under / from

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

12. ----- the development of mechanical printing, literature became more widely accessible, and a rise in literacy was observed across Europe.

- A) Until
- B) Because
- C) Since
- D) While
- E) Just as

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

13. ---- it is widely accepted that medieval knights fought on horseback, some historical evidence shows they often dismounted before battles began.

- A) Whenever
- B) Although
- C) Until
- D) Given that
- E) As soon as

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

14. Türkiye produces a large share of the world's hazelnuts; -----, foreign consumers are often unaware that they originate from Türkiye, as they're sold under global snack brands.

- A) similarly
- B) for example
- C) however
- D) thus
- E) otherwise

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

15. Teachers often encourage bystanders to speak up against bullying ----- the victim feels less isolated and more supported.

- A) although
- B) so that
- C) just as
- D) after
- E) when

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

16. ----- ancient papyrus scrolls are fragile and decay over time, certain storage conditions can preserve them for centuries.

- A) Since
- B) Whether
- C) Even if
- D) As if
- E) Provided that

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

17. In the early 20th century, many scholars described children's behavior purely ----- biological responses, ignoring emotional and cultural influences.

- A) other than
- B) in terms of
- C) in need of
- D) owing to
- E) as well as

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

18. ----- its global rise, American cinema introduced uniform storytelling rules that came to define mainstream movies.

- A) Contrary to
- B) Regardless of
- C) In comparison with
- D) In addition to
- E) With

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

19. The Silk Road was ----- a vital trade network in the ancient world ----- it influenced the growth of many civilizations along its path.

- A) such / that
- B) the more / the more
- C) as / as
- D) whether / or
- E) so / that

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

20. Carl Jung was a renowned psychologist ----- theories about the collective unconscious reshaped modern psychoanalysis.

- A) whom
- B) who
- C) whose
- D) that
- E) how

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

Cultural tourism is expanding rapidly around the globe. Scholars, however, highlight challenges (21) ---- defining what qualifies as a “cultural tourist.” There is still no widely accepted framework, and recent studies (22) ---- shown a variety of motivations behind cultural travel. One major factor is the rise of personalized experiences (23) ---- travelers seek meaningful engagement with local traditions. This trend is especially (24) ---- in countries with long historical heritage and preserved architecture. (25) ---- this growing demand, cities are investing heavily in museums, performances, and cultural festivals 21.

- A) about
- B) for
- C) in
- D) of
- E) to

22.

- A) had
- B) have
- C) would
- D) has
- E) is

23.

- A) which
- B) where
- C) what
- D) that
- E) whom

24.

- A) tolerable
- B) visible
- C) preferable
- D) remarkable
- E) avoidable

25.

- A) Due to
- B) Instead of
- C) Regardless of
- D) Compared to
- E) In case of