

1. ----, you should boil it or add some disinfectant if possible before use.

- A) When people living in unhygienic environments, take some precautions
- B) Although drinking well water without checking if it is clean is dangerous
- C) If you have to use well water instead of tap water for some reason
- D) Because some unreliable water sources must be banned from use
- E) While people should check the expiry date of especially canned foods

2. Exposure to radiation can lead to an increased liability to cancer later in life, ----.

- A) however, it is necessary for radioactive materials to be handled with the greatest care
- B) so nuclear radiations are undetectable by the human senses
- C) whereas the effectiveness of the measures is judged by the nuclear industry's records
- D) because no human activity can be completed without risk
- E) and very heavy exposure in a severe accident could be rapidly fatal as well

3. ----; therefore, if you have one of these symptoms, you must see a psychiatrist.

- A) The diagnosis closely resembles what the public calls a major depression
- B) Depression is characterized by a lack of energy, motivation and feelings of guilt or hopelessness
- C) Depressive episodes are often triggered by social and environmental circumstances
- D) In the early 1900s, major depression was known as neurasthenia
- E) Studies estimate that 50 million Americans suffer some form of mental illness in their lifetime

4. ---- since they are more prone to hormonal imbalance.

- A) Women do not have to deal with an unpleasant skin problem
- B) Hormones play a great role in the occurrence of acne
- C) It is not surprising that women suffer from adult acne more than men do
- D) Habits such as smoking and drinking can affect the skin's condition
- E) A person suffering from adult acne should consult a dermatologist

5. Although the term narcissism is popular among people nowadays, ----.

- A) people tend to use these terms to describe their unwanted relatives
- B) true pathological narcissism affects only one per cent of the population
- C) the prevalence of the term among health professionals has always been high
- D) true pathological narcissists remain stable in terms of their health
- E) we keep diagnosing our friends and relatives in many ways

6. As a growing number of people dramatically change their diets in pursuit of health, ----.

- A) Americans today have a complicated relationship with food
- B) some are cutting out half the necessary foods altogether
- C) organic foods are still behind in sales compared to genetically modified foods
- D) the consumption habits of many people remain the same
- E) the consumption of soda pop, or drinks like Coke, is still high

7. Guinea had fewer weekly cases than neighbouring Sierra Leone and Liberia, ----.

- A) and the diseases seen there were more severe than those in the two countries
- B) so it was last on Western researchers' likely locations of Ebola vaccine tests
- C) but, traditionally, these two countries are places of political turmoil
- D) as the leaders of these countries ordered their citizens not to enter Guinea
- E) which explains why they have more cases of any disease prevalent in Africa

8. ----, there are few bigger challenges than cancer.

- A) As long as people are careful
- B) No matter what patients have done
- C) Once scientists find a cure for it
- D) Although cancer is a deadly disease
- E) When it comes to human disease

9. Due to too much-added sugar or fat, ----.

- A) food processing techniques include processes like freezing
- B) some raw foods such as milk are processed to make them safe
- C) fat is also a crucial nutrient for humans and animals
- D) processed foods can be higher in calories than needed
- E) many Americans spend most of their money on ready-made foods

10. ---- as long as a doctor signs a letter stating it helps its owner deal with a medical condition on the plane.

- A) Taking a pet onboard a flight is forbidden
- B) Many animals, including guinea pigs, are regular visitors to nursing homes
- C) We are increasingly looking to animals as therapy for everything
- D) In some countries, an animal can board a flight
- E) Some pet animals create problems during a flight

11. ----; the ones we keep as pets, on the other hand, often develop it.

- A) Over the last few decades, many new animal diseases have emerged
- B) Cats have long been known to develop diabetes and leukaemia
- C) Pets can suffer from both type 1 and type 2 diabetes
- D) It is not common to see illnesses like diabetes in wild animals
- E) Diabetes is a dangerous disease for both humans and animals

1.	C
2.	E
3.	B
4.	C
5.	B
6.	B
7.	B
8.	E
9.	D
10.	D
11.	D