

For these questions, choose the best word or expression to fill the space. Set 1 verbs

1. Researchers in psychology often conduct experiments to ---- the relationship between environmental factors and human behavior.

- A) instigate
- B) manipulate
- C) mitigate
- D) investigate
- E) disrupt

2. In his philosophical writings, Aristotle mainly sought to ---- the concept of virtue as a balance between excess and deficiency.

- A) clarify
- B) hinder
- C) obscure
- D) reject
- E) dilute

3. Public health officials have implemented numerous campaigns to ---- the spread of contagious diseases in densely populated areas.

- A) trigger
- B) thwart
- C) enflame
- D) augment
- E) accelerate

4. The rise of social media has significantly ---- how individuals communicate and form relationships, particularly among younger generations.

- A) enhanced
- B) terminated
- C) restricted
- D) isolated
- E) obstructed

5. During periods of stress, the body's natural response is to ---- the production of cortisol, which prepares the individual to face potential challenges.

- A) suppress
- B) contain
- C) compromise
- D) hinder
- E) stimulate

6. The development of cognitive-behavioral therapy (CBT) has helped psychologists ---- irrational beliefs that contribute to anxiety and depression in patients.

- A) reinforce
- B) challenge
- C) obscure
- D) intensify
- E) prolong

7. The ancient philosophers like Aristo and Plato, not to mention the subsequent ones, sought to ---- the nature of existence by analyzing the fundamental principles of reality and consciousness.

- A) ignore
- B) quarrel
- C) examine
- D) discard
- E) distort

8. Health experts recommend that individuals ---- regular exercise into their daily routines if they are to maintain both physical and mental well-being.

- A) overlook
- B) incorporate
- C) minimize
- D) terminate
- E) adjourn

9. In an attempt to ---- anxiety, mindfulness practices encourage individuals to focus on the present moment rather than worry about future uncertainties.

- A) induce
- B) perpetuate
- C) amplify
- D) alleviate
- E) aggravate

10. Modern ethical debates often seek to ---- the moral implications of using artificial intelligence in decision-making processes.

- A) emphasize
- B) complicate
- C) evaluate
- D) obscure
- E) disregard

Set 2 adverbs

1. Despite the complexity of the philosophical argument, the professor ---- explained the concepts, allowing students to grasp even the most difficult ideas.

- A) loosely
- B) briefly
- C) incomprehensibly
- D) aversely
- E) precisely

2.The patient's condition improved ---- after the new treatment was administered, much to the relief of the medical team.

- A) gradually
- B) erratically
- C) reluctantly
- D) inadequately
- E) ambiguously

3. During the debate on the new taxes to be introduced, the politician from the ruling party ---- defended his stance, responding to each question with self-assurance and clear evidence.

- A) nervously
- B) passively
- C) confidently
- D) vaguely
- E) impatiently

4.Although the research findings were initially questioned, they were ---- accepted after further studies confirmed their accuracy.

- A) hastily
- B) reluctantly
- C) effortlessly
- D) widely
- E) mistakenly

5.In times of crisis, leaders are expected to act ----, taking swift and well-thought-out measures to minimize damage and ensure public safety.

- A) recklessly
- B) impulsively
- C) decisively
- D) randomly
- E) doubtfully

6.An artist can be defined as the person who has the dexterity or prowess to ---- capture the emotions of the scene, bringing a deep sense of realism to the painting.

- A) poorly
- B) inadequately
- C) vividly
- D) awkwardly
- E) lazily

7.What makes a research team a distinguished one is their ability to work ---- to meet the deadline, ensuring that every aspect of the project was completed with precision and accuracy.

- A) lethargically
- B) inconsistently
- C) sporadically
- D) vigorously
- E) casually

8.Unlike a storyteller who focuses on the flow of events, a philosopher ---- argues his or her position, presenting logical reasons and countering objections with strong evidence.

- A) indiscriminately
- B) persuasively
- C) aversely
- D) submissively
- E) furiously

9.In conventional medicine, the patient is advised to follow the doctor's recommendations ---- in order to achieve the best possible recovery.

- A) cautiously
- B) intermittently
- C) strictly
- D) haphazardly
- E) hastily

10.While many people ---- rejected the new theory, it received more positive reactions and even acclaim as more supporting evidence emerged over time.

- A) suddenly
- B) enthusiastically
- C) carelessly
- D) immediately
- E) initially

angora
inUilize

angora
inUilize

angora
inUilize

angora
inUilize

Set 3 phrasal verbs

1. When the new regulations were introduced, many companies had to ---- their business strategies and make necessary changes in order to remain competitive in the fluctuating market environment.

- A) set off
- B) carry on
- C) look after
- D) turn down
- E) brush up

2. After years of hard work, the scientist was finally able to ---- an innovative solution that could revolutionize renewable energy storage systems.

- A) make up for
- B) come up with
- C) put up with
- D) look up to
- E) get away with

3. The company decided to ---- the launch of their latest product due to unforeseen technical difficulties and supply chain issues.

- A) put off
- B) bring about
- C) take after
- D) turn into
- E) break out

4. It took the team several hours to ---- all the details of the project and ensure that nothing was passed over in their final report.

- A) look forward to
- B) go over
- C) take up
- D) run out of
- E) fall through

5. Despite years of dedication and hard work, an experienced worker may be ---- for promotion, leaving him feeling undervalued and frustrated with the company's decision.

- A) looked up
- B) put off
- C) taken after
- D) passed over
- E) ironed out

6. As soon as the CEO retired, the vice president was ready to ---- the role and lead the company into its next phase.

- A) break through
- B) take over
- C) give up
- D) call off
- E) run across

7. Despite his busy schedule, the professor managed to ---- time for his students to discuss their research and provide valuable feedback.

- A) fall through
- B) make up for
- C) break up
- D) set aside
- E) turn out

8. The team was disappointed when their proposal was ---- by the board of directors, who felt it was too risky for the current market.

- A) set off
- B) put up
- C) run out of
- D) turned down
- E) passed away

9. The government is planning to ---- a series of reforms aimed at reducing corruption and increasing transparency in public institutions.

- A) break out
- B) bring about
- C) take up
- D) turn in
- E) put away

10. After several attempts, the engineers were finally able to ---- the technical issues that had been delaying the project's completion.

- A) get along
- B) figure out
- C) put out
- D) turn away
- E) break out

11. The teacher encouraged the students to ---- their assignments before the due date to allow time for revisions and feedback.

- A) break out of
- B) bring in
- C) hand in
- D) run out
- E) draw on

angora
inUilize

angora
inUilize

angora
inUilize

angora
inUilize

Set 4 Nouns

1. The renowned economist's research provided a thorough ---- of the factors contributing to income inequality, offering new insights into potential policy reforms.

- A) simplification
- B) estimation
- C) exploration
- D) speculation
- E) justification

2. The documentary focused on the systematic ---- of indigenous cultures, detailing how their traditions have been suppressed over the centuries.

- A) preservation
- B) marginalization
- C) enhancement
- D) conservation
- E) revival

3. In philosophical discourse, the ---- of reality is often debated, as scholars attempt to define what constitutes true existence and knowledge.

- A) rejection
- B) perception
- C) essence
- D) triviality
- E) illusion

4. The professor's presentation highlighted the importance of social ----, which plays a crucial role in shaping an individual's harmonious behavior within their community.

- A) solidarity
- B) observation
- C) intervention
- D) conformity
- E) exclusion

5. The advent of artificial intelligence is expected to bring about significant ---- in various industries, including healthcare, education, and manufacturing.

- A) oscillations
- B) breakthroughs
- C) advancements
- D) complications
- E) reductions

6. The environmental report called for immediate ---- to address the alarming rate of deforestation and its impact on global biodiversity.

- A) sanctions
- B) precautions
- C) actions
- D) neglect
- E) speculations

7. The scientist's groundbreaking discovery provided an essential ---- for further research, opening new avenues in the field of quantum physics.

- A) obstacle
- B) foundation
- C) distraction
- D) consequence
- E) digression

8. In today's globalized world, the rapid exchange of cultural ideas has led to the ---- of various traditions, creating hybrid forms of art and expression.

- A) division
- B) dissolution
- C) synthesis
- D) exclusion
- E) extinction

9. The politician's speech was filled with vague promises and lacked any real ----, leaving the audience unconvinced of his plans for change.

- A) substance
- B) illusion
- C) exaggeration
- D) enhancement
- E) deflection

10. The debate over climate change continues to escalate, with the scientific community providing overwhelming ---- to support the argument for urgent action.

- A) skepticism
- B) evidence
- C) conjecture
- D) ideology
- E) diversion

Set 5 nouns

1. The rapid increase in greenhouse gas emissions has contributed to the ---- of global temperatures, which is now a major concern for environmental scientists.

- A) inflation
- B) destruction
- C) extinction
- D) elevation
- E) upswing

2. The CEO announced a new company policy aimed at improving workplace ----, ensuring that all employees feel safe and respected at all times.

- A) diversity
- B) morale
- C) equality
- D) hierarchy
- E) discrepancy

3. The invention of the steam engine was a major ---- in the Industrial Revolution, fundamentally changing transportation and manufacturing processes.

- A) setback
- B) breakthrough
- C) collapse
- D) consequence
- E) hindrance

4. As a result of increased automation, many workers face the potential ---- of their jobs, leading to widespread economic anxiety in various industries.

- A) resurgence
- B) displacement
- C) recruitment
- D) enhancement
- E) achievement

5. The professor emphasized the importance of critical thinking, encouraging students to question every ---- presented in the lecture rather than accepting information at face value.

- A) conclusion
- B) postulation
- C) justification
- D) description
- E) distraction

6. With the launch of new, faster processors, there has been a significant ---- in the performance of personal computers, allowing for more complex software applications.

- A) degeneration
- B) penalization
- C) improvement
- D) catastrophe
- E) compromise

7. Due to the candidate's vast experience and leadership skills, there was little ---- among the hiring committee about her suitability for the executive position.

- A) disruption
- B) contention
- C) agreement
- D) collaboration
- E) confusion

8. The novel's plot revolves around the protagonist's internal ---- as he struggles to choose between his career ambitions and his personal happiness.

- A) resolution
- B) conflict
- C) achievement
- D) withdrawal
- E) integration

9. The sudden power outage caused a ---- in production, forcing the factory to halt operations until the problem could be resolved.

- A) solution
- B) connection
- C) decline
- D) disruption
- E) preservation

10. In modern societies, education is often considered the most effective means of achieving economic ---- and improving an individual's overall quality of life.

- A) decline
- B) stagnation
- C) mobility
- D) reduction
- E) rigidity

Set 6 Adjectives

1. The professor's lecture was highly ----, presenting complex theories in a way that captivated even the most seasoned academics in the audience.

- A) rudimentary
- B) pedestrian
- C) engaging
- D) trivial
- E) irrelevant

2. The economic crisis caused a ---- shift in global markets, triggering long-lasting effects that would take years to reverse.

- A) transient
- B) minimal
- C) marginal
- D) profound
- E) fleeting

3. The judge's approach to conflict resolution was notably ----, ensuring that all parties felt heard and respected during the negotiation process.

- A) superficial
- B) impartial
- C) predisposed
- D) arbitrary
- E) authoritarian

4. The art exhibition was praised for its ---- style, combining elements from various movements and eras in a seamless presentation.

- A) fragmented
- B) erratic
- C) cohesive
- D) disjointed
- E) monotonous

5. The politician's speech was seen as ----, with clear intent to manipulate public opinion rather than provide genuine solutions to the crisis.

- A) transparent
- B) insincere
- C) forthright
- D) candid
- E) decent

6. The scientist's findings were ----, raising important ethical and scientific questions about the future of genetic engineering.

- A) groundbreaking
- B) obsolete
- C) conventional
- D) redundant
- E) insignificant

7. The lawyer presented an ---- defense, leaving the jury with no doubt about his client's innocence after a well-reasoned argument.

- A) unconvincing
- B) coherent
- C) irrelevant
- D) hectic
- E) disorganized

8. The critic's review was so ---- that it left the artist questioning the very foundation of the creative process.

- A) congratulatory
- B) devastating
- C) encouraging
- D) impartial
- E) indifferent

9. Given the rising demand for power, the company's decision to invest in sustainable energy solutions was both ---- and forward-thinking, anticipating future market demands.

- A) reckless
- B) prudent
- C) shortsighted
- D) negligent
- E) impulsive

10. The ability to remain ---- during high-pressure situations can be regarded as an invaluable asset to the special operation teams in critical moments.

- A) composed
- B) erratic
- C) frantic
- D) indifferent
- E) agitated

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

angora
inSilizce

Set 7 İlk 16

1. ---- the experiment was successful under controlled conditions, the researchers could not guarantee similar results in a real-world environment due to various external factors.

- A) Though
- B) So that
- C) Given that
- D) In case
- E) As if

2. The research team ensured that all protocols were followed ---- any potential errors during the data collection process could compromise the study's validity.

- A) given that
- B) in case
- C) though
- D) just as
- E) so that

3. ---- the international community that had intervened, the environmental disaster could have escalated, leading to widespread damage across multiple ecosystems.

- A) In the wake of
- B) In spite of
- C) But for
- D) Regardless of
- E) Prior to

4. The policy was implemented ---- it would encourage more sustainable practices in urban development and reduce the carbon footprint of major cities.

- A) just as B) though
- C) unless D) so that
- E) but

5. ---- the public's perception of an issue may remain mostly positive, the media at times continues to sensationalize the topic, creating unnecessary alarm among viewers.

- A) Unless
- B) Though
- C) Just as
- D) Because
- E) In case

6. ---- the new legislation is passed, businesses will be required to meet stricter environmental standards in order to continue operating within the region.

- A) In case
- B) Though
- C) Once
- D) Whereas
- E) So that

7. The committee approved the project ---- the research adhered to all ethical guidelines and ensured participant confidentiality throughout the study.

- A) so that
- B) when
- C) just as
- D) unless
- E) but

8. ---- the data was meticulously checked for errors, some discrepancies remained, prompting further review by the research team.

- A) Though
- B) Unless
- C) Once
- D) Just as
- E) Given that

9. The conference was postponed ---- the venue was suddenly closed for renovations, leaving the organizers scrambling for an alternative location.

- A) Unless
- B) But for
- C) In case
- D) So that
- E) Though

10. The scientists worked tirelessly to develop a treatment that would be effective ---- the virus mutated and posed new challenges for healthcare professionals.

- A) as if
- B) so that
- C) if
- D) in case
- E) now that

angora
inUilizce

angora
inUilizce

angora
inUilizce

angora
inUilizce