

SET 1 ADVERBS

1. In response to an alarming rise in health misinformation, the platform began moderating posts more ----, flagging and removing content that lacked credible sources or peer-reviewed backing.

- A) stringently
  - B) exponentially
  - C) detrimentally
  - D) illicitly
  - E) notoriously
-

2. Since the introduction of deep learning models, the accuracy of image recognition systems has improved almost ----, leading to breakthroughs in diagnostics, surveillance, and autonomous navigation.

- A) stringently
  - B) exponentially
  - C) detrimentally
  - D) illicitly
  - E) notoriously
-

3. The company's decision to outsource manufacturing had ---- impacted local employment, with hundreds of factory workers laid off and entire communities facing long-term economic instability.

- A) stringently
  - B) exponentially
  - C) detrimentally
  - D) illicitly
  - E) notoriously
-

4. Investigators discovered that the pharmaceutical data had been obtained ----, raising legal and ethical questions about the research team's methods and the journal's peer-review process.

- A) stringently
  - B) exponentially
  - C) detrimentally
  - D) illicitly
  - E) notoriously
-

5. The CEO was ---- known for aggressive takeovers and hostile acquisitions, which earned him both admiration and criticism across the international business community.

- A) stringently
  - B) exponentially
  - C) detrimentally
  - D) illicitly
  - E) notoriously
-

SET2 NOUNS

1. The success of the sustainability initiative was largely due to effective public ----, which encouraged individuals to reduce plastic consumption and participate in local recycling programs.

- A) ramifications
- B) collaboration
- C) intervention
- D) outreach
- E) deviation

2. The project failed due to a lack of ---- between departments, as each team worked independently without aligning their goals or sharing critical updates.

- A) ramifications
- B) collaboration
- C) intervention
- D) outreach
- E) deviation

3. Government ---- in the housing market led to a temporary stabilization of prices, but critics argued it distorted natural supply and demand dynamics.

- A) intervention
- B) collaboration
- C) outreach
- D) deviation
- E) ramifications

4. The slight ---- from the standard procedure resulted in an unexpected data inconsistency, prompting a full review of the experiment's protocol.

- A) collaboration
- B) outreach
- C) intervention
- D) deviation
- E) ramifications

5. The economic ---- of the policy shift were felt across sectors, with small businesses experiencing both challenges and opportunities under the new regulations.

- A) intervention
- B) deviation
- C) outreach
- D) collaboration
- E) ramifications

---

SET 3 Phrasal verbs

---

1. The spokesperson attempted to ---- the controversy surrounding the company's environmental practices by releasing a detailed sustainability report and inviting independent auditors.

- A) bring about
  - B) carry out
  - C) play down
  - D) take over
  - E) fall through
-

2. The research team was asked to ---- an independent study to verify the surprising results reported in the original publication, especially given the unusually high success rate.

- A) bring about
  - B) carry out
  - C) play down
  - D) take over
  - E) fall through
-

3. The merger was expected to create one of the largest firms in the sector, but the deal ultimately ---- due to unresolved legal complications and shareholder resistance.

- A) bring about
  - B) carry out
  - C) play down
  - D) take over
  - E) fell through
-

4. Analysts believe that emerging technologies will ---- major changes in how we approach energy production, storage, and global distribution within the next two decades.

- A) bring about
  - B) carry out
  - C) play down
  - D) take over
  - E) fall through
-

5. The new CEO promised not to ---- the company without first consulting department heads and understanding the internal culture, hoping to avoid sudden structural disruptions.

- A) bring about
  - B) carry out
  - C) play down
  - D) take over
  - E) fall through
-

SET 4 Adjectives

---

1. The speaker's argument was so ---- that even those who initially disagreed found themselves reconsidering their positions by the end of the presentation.

- A) volatile
  - B) articulate
  - C) redundant
  - D) mundane
  - E) obsolete
-

2. Although the theory was once considered revolutionary, many of its assumptions are now viewed as ---- in light of recent empirical evidence and technological advancements.

- A) articulate
  - B) obsolete
  - C) redundant
  - D) volatile
  - E) mundane
-

3. The document was filled with ---- statements that contributed little to the discussion, making it unnecessarily long and difficult to follow.

- A) articulate
  - B) volatile
  - C) redundant
  - D) mundane
  - E) obsolete
-

4. The financial markets became increasingly ---- in response to the unpredictable geopolitical tensions, causing investors to pull back from risk-heavy portfolios.

- A) volatile
  - B) articulate
  - C) obsolete
  - D) redundant
  - E) mundane
-

5. The task may seem ---- on the surface, but it plays a critical role in maintaining organizational efficiency and consistency across departments.

- A) mundane
  - B) volatile
  - C) obsolete
  - D) redundant
  - E) articulate
-

SET 5 verbs

1. The board of directors voted to ---- the outdated policy after a series of internal reviews revealed it no longer aligned with the organization's ethical standards.

- A) distort
- B) implement
- C) revoke
- D) facilitate
- E) exacerbate

2. The charity launched a new initiative designed to ---- access to education for children in conflict-affected regions by building partnerships with local NGOs and international donors.

- A) facilitate
- B) revoke
- C) distort
- D) exacerbate
- E) implement

3. Critics argue that the media often ---- scientific data to attract public attention, oversimplifying complex findings and misrepresenting their real-world implications.

- A) distort
- B) implement
- C) revoke
- D) exacerbate
- E) facilitate

4. The government's failure to address the water shortage has only served to ---- tensions between urban and rural communities already competing for limited resources.

- A) distort
- B) facilitate
- C) exacerbate
- D) implement
- E) revoke

5. The new framework will be difficult to ---- without cross-sector collaboration, clear regulations, and adequate funding from both public and private stakeholders.

- A) facilitate
- B) revoke
- C) distort
- D) exacerbate
- E) implement