

1. Human beings are important for the survival of the planet, as they have the capacity to make ---- positive changes.
A) significant B) severe
2. The important ---- of population ageing is a shrinking workforce leading to a slowdown in economic growth.
A) commitment B) implication
3. Tourism can have a significant impact ---- the local economy, create jobs and drive growth in many industries.
A) in B) on
4. Employers play a significant role in creating a positive work environment that ---- employee well-being and job satisfaction.
A) fosters B) curtails
5. It is critical for children to attend school regularly to receive a proper education and ---- their full potential.
A) induce B) achieve
6. The ancient civilization of Sumer was able to thrive due to its proximity to the river, but the critical condition of the water supply posed a ---- threat.
A) constant B) challenging
7. Water was ---- to the survival of ancient civilizations, and many of the greatest advancements were made in water management and distribution.
A) adaptable B) vital
8. The printing press was crucial ---- disseminating knowledge and transforming the way information was shared.
A) for B) on
9. The use of technology in the classroom is crucial for ---- learning outcomes and keeping students engaged in their studies.
A) violating B) enhancing
10. The human mind is of ---- importance in determining our mental health, cognitive abilities, and overall quality of life.
A) profitable B) paramount
11. ---- being influenced by outside forces throughout its history, Egypt has always maintained its principal identity and cultural heritage.
A) Despite B) Thanks to
12. Gold and silver have been the principal metals used ---- currency, jewelry, and decoration ---- history.
A) for / throughout B) with / in
13. Skill assessment is necessary ---- strengths and weaknesses, develop goals, and identify areas for improvement in education and employment.
A) to reduce B) to determine
14. The ---- of the digital economy has made digital literacy and computer skills essential for success in the modern workforce.
A) conflict B) advent
15. Proper nutrition, education, and social interaction are ---- for healthy physical, cognitive, and emotional development in children.
A) fundamental B) vulnerable
16. The fundamental principle of managing a resource ---- is to use it wisely and ensure its availability for future generations.
A) sustainably B) drastically

17. In order to be considered for the position, applicants must meet the ---- qualifications, including relevant work experience and educational background.
A) required B) tremendous
18. School leaders should be familiar with ---- principles of education to effectively manage schools.
A) immense B) basic
19. The ---- function of a job is to support individuals and contribute to the functioning of modern society.
A) primary B) relevant
20. In today's digital age, the internet has become an ---- tool for communication, information sharing, and online services.
A) inconclusive B) indispensable
21. Witnessing strange behavior at banks, ---- long queues and strict security measures, is quite common.
A) rather than B) such as
22. Unusual and unique approaches to ---- bullying in schools can often be effective in preventing and addressing the issue.
A) tackling B) promoting
23. The pandemic has created a weird situation where some industries experience decline ---- others benefit from economic growth.
A) while B) just as
24. There are some weird ideas circulating ---- the effects of play deprivation ---- child development.
A) about / on B) over / in
25. Teaching apes to use symbols to communicate with humans is an uncommon experience that ---- their cognitive abilities.
A) cuts down on B) sheds light on
26. Experiencing virtual reality for the first time was a ---- and unforgettable experience of the digital age.
A) misleading B) unique
27. World War II was a massive conflict that emerged in 1939 and had a ---- impact on much of Europe.
A) devastating B) legitimate
28. The pandemic caused a huge impact on the economy, ---- job losses and decreased economic activity.
A) resulting from B) bringing about
29. The brain processes a huge amount of information every day, allowing us ---- and interact with the world.
A) to perceive B) perceiving
30. Incorporating technology into K12 education can result in a gigantic ---- in student engagement and learning outcomes.
A) leap B) process