

1. If the film features violence, it is not likely to be a magnet for large audiences.

A) The film that focuses on violence is likely to receive little popularity.

B) Should violence be central to the film, it most likely won't achieve much popularity.

2. The patient is recovering only slowly from the operation; apparently progress is being hindered by poor diet.

A) Obviously the recuperation period after surgery will be a long one for the patient due in part to his lack of a proper diet.

B) Obviously the healing period after surgery is far behind the projections, for the patient lacks a proper diet.

3. People from the Far East are knowledgeable than Westerners and also more experienced in economic development.

A) People in the West don't get as informed as do those in the Far East, and further, are less accomplished in matters concerning economic development.

B) Education system in the Far East gives people there a better grasp of economic development as well as opportunities to gain more experience compared to those in the West.

4. We have to admit that there are both joys and pressures that inevitably accompany the bringing up of a disabled child.

A) It is not uncommon to see people admitting the pain and pleasure inherent while bringing up a handicapped child.

B) There are not just delights but also strains that one is bound to encounter when bringing up a handicapped child.

5. It's hardly surprising that unemployment has been a paramount issue in so many recent election campaigns.

A) Understandably, the majority of election campaigns in recent times have centered upon one major issue, i unemployment.

B) As expected, most election campaigns in recent times have centered round only one principal issue, unemployment.

6. If there is only one name to be remembered for his contributions to social harmony in Turkey, it is definitely that of Barış Manço.

A) There is no other person than Barış Manço to whom we should be grateful for his contributions to social harmony.

B) Barış Manço is only one of the people to whom we should be grateful for his contributions to social harmony.

7. The peace talks lasted for longer than experts had expected as, for some reason or another, there were objections from both parties.

A) There were objections from both parties, so the peace talks went on longer than anticipated.

B) It was on account of there being so many objections that the peace talks went on for as long as expected.

8. The principal should have known better than to have left a senior student in charge of the class if only for a lesson.

A) It was quite considerate of the principal to appoint a senior student to keep an eye on the class for as long as a lesson.

B) Though it was only for a lesson, it was foolish of the principal to make a senior student responsible for the monitoring of the class.

9. To be honest, no one was expecting Russia to stand up for Syria so openly.

- A) Frankly, it came as quite a surprise when Russia was so explicitly on the side of Syria.
- B) Honestly, that Russia was so explicitly on the side of Syria was not something unexpected.

10. If one presenter is to introduce the main speaker at the conference, then he had better find out something about his recent activities.

- A) One presenter needs to familiarize himself with what the main speaker has been doing of late when assigned the job to introduce the speaker at the conference.
- B) When one presenter introduces the main speaker at the conference, he has to get hold of some information about what the speaker's recent activities are and refer to them.

11. Too many of the things that take place in a family-run business depend upon the boss's discretion.

- A) The boss is not in a position to assert what he says
- B) The boss has far too big a say in what happens.

12. The reason behind the coach's refusal to make a statement to the press is uncertain, but some believe that he is playing for time.

- A) It's not clear why the coach has avoided making a statement to the press so far, but presumably it's a question of delay tactics.
- B) The coach continues to find excuses for not making a statement to the press, but before long he will presumably have to do so.

13. China's determination to put people in space dates back to the 1960's.

- A) China has been resolutely sending people into space ever since the early 1960s.
- B) China has been set on getting people into space ever since the 1960s.

14. He's one of those people who is always ready to promise help but rarely keeps his promise.

- A) He's like lots of other people; he promises to help but rarely does.
- B) He's the sort of person who is good at promising help, but almost always fails to do so.

15. Most believe that Michael Jordan got to the top at last because there was literally nobody standing in his path but it was not the case.

- A) Many believe that as there was absolutely no one to prevent him from doing so, Michael Jordan finally made it to the top.
- B) To many, if there had been any serious competition, it's not likely that Michael Jordan could have made it to the top.

16. Zoom is one of several tools available to scholars for delivering their lectures.

- A) Zoom can be cited as just one of the ways through which scholars can deliver their lectures.
- B) Zoom is listed among the ways which scholars resort to while planning their lectures.

SET 1

1. B	2. B	3. A	4. B	5. A
6. A	7. A	8. B	9. A	10. A
11. B	12. A	13. B	14. B	15. A
16. A

