

1.

1-6 : For these questions, choose the best word(s) or expression(s) to fill the space(s).

The types of climate that prevail over a region are determined by quantifying the prevailing weather elements whose periods of ---- extend over a length of time.

- (A) acquisition
- (B) observation
- (C) fragmentation
- (D) exhaustion
- (E) elaboration

7.

7-16 : For these questions, choose the best word(s) or expression(s) to fill the space(s).

While the death of Queen Victoria in 1901 at the age of 81 hardly came as a shock, her funeral ---- a huge, international event because she ---- on the throne since 1837.

- (A) became / had been
(B) would have become / was
(C) was becoming / would be
(D) had become / used to be
(E) would become / could be

Önceki
soru

30.

Önceki
soru

27-36 : For these questions, choose the best option to complete the given sentence.

While acupuncture has shown notable success in treating many conditions, and more than 15 million Americans have used it as a therapy, ----.

- (A) it alters the body's energy flow into healthier patterns, and is used to treat a wide variety of health problems
- (B) some national institutions are resistant to researching it, as it is based on concepts very different from the Western scientific model
- (C) Chinese medicine teachings state that disease is caused by too much or too little flow of energy along the channels of energy
- (D) it is generally most effective when used as prevention or before a health condition becomes acute
- (E) pain from certain musculoskeletal conditions could be helped by acupuncture except the ones that require surgery

40.

37-42 : For these questions, choose the most accurate Turkish translation of the sentences in English, and the most accurate English translation of the sentences in Turkish.

Geleneksel tedavilerle birlikte alternatif ve tamamlayıcı yaklaşımlar kullanmak bazı semptomları azaltabilir ancak pek çok sağlık sorununda geleneksel tedavinin yerini tam olarak alamaz.

- (A) Alternative and complementary approaches can be used in coordination with conventional treatments to alleviate some symptoms; they cannot, however, effectively substitute for conventional medical care for many health conditions.
- (B) Alternative and complementary approaches used in coordination with conventional treatments alleviate some symptoms, though they cannot substitute for conventional medical care for certain health conditions.
- (C) Using alternative and complementary approaches in coordination with conventional treatments cannot effectively substitute for conventional medical care even if it may alleviate some symptoms of many health conditions.
- (D) Using alternative and complementary approaches may alleviate some symptoms if used in coordination with conventional treatments, yet they cannot be effective substitutes for conventional medical care for many health conditions.
- (E) Using alternative and complementary approaches in coordination with conventional treatments may alleviate some symptoms but cannot effectively substitute for conventional medical care for many health conditions.

Önceki
soru

64.

63-67 : For these questions, choose the best option to complete the dialogue.

Mark:

– A friend of mine insists on taking up gardening course together. Still, I'm not so keen on that as I know that I wouldn't enjoy being alone even if I learn gardening, as it offers nothing more than seeding flowers just by myself.

Alvin:

– What about changing your perspective? Gardening doesn't need to be a solitary pursuit if you nurture your connections.

Mark:

Alvin:

– You can simply join a gardening club, which often take members to trips to public gardens. Social media is also a great resource for finding local interest groups. Besides, you can volunteer to help your elderly neighbours to take care of their gardens.

Mark:

– Okay, now it appears to be a fantastic pastime.

- A Do you mean that I can take it as a way of starting a business and making money with my like-minded friends?
- B Are you really sure that it can take me to a place where I can inspire other gardeners and set up a business?
- C Could you come up with a helpful suggestion about how to transform it into a socialising method?
- D I suppose what I need is seeding plants in soil in spring rather than making friends. What do you think of that?
- E Do you believe that it can work out as a natural remedy that breaks my stress cycle in the office?

angora
enEnglish

69.

Önceki
soru

68-71 : For these questions, choose the best rephrased form of the given sentence.

Some therapists suggest that before leaving for a nature walk, it is good to identify an issue that requires thinking deeply such as a question that needs answering or a worry that is dogging you.

- (A) What some therapists recommend is that you had better take natural walks before finding answers to questions or identifying your concerns that follow you on a continuous manner when you start to think on them deeply.
- (B) It is the advice of some therapists to take natural walks to think deeply and then identify issues which vary from questions for which you need to find answers to concerns that occupy your mind continuously.
- (C) In order to identify an issue that requires deep thinking, whether it be a question in need of answers or a concern occupying your mind continuously, taking natural walks is what some therapists suggest.
- (D) According to what some therapists suggest, prior to a walk in nature, it is good for one to determine an issue which requires deep thinking, which can be a question for which you are seeking an answer or a concern that occupies your mind continuously.
- (E) Taking natural walks is suggested by some therapists who believe it to be a good way of thinking and identifying issues ranging from questions that are waiting an answer or concerns that occupy your mind in a continuous manner.

angora
enŞilize

74.

Önceki
soru

72-75 : For these questions, choose the best option to complete the missing part of the passage.

---- For example, consider a university student who is thinking about getting coffee at a bistro. The student might see the benefits as a great-tasting snack, a personal reward for studying, a quick dose of energy, or a way to meet and get to know an attractive classmate. The costs of those benefits would include the price of the drink, and non-monetary things such as how difficult it will be to park a car there. Moreover, a student might worry about seeing a professor who may think he or she is wasting time instead of studying.

- (A) A firm's managerial objective and thorough market analysis may not accurately reflect customers' expectations.
- (B) Accounting data that helps managers track where costs and profits are coming from is an important aid for a marketing strategy.
- (C) A firm that offers value for money against costs is likely to gain new customers and keep existing ones.
- (D) A customer may look at a product or service from two perspectives: the potential benefits and the costs.
- (E) A well-informed marketing manager can play an important role in deciding which costs are necessary to meet customer needs.

80.

76-80 : For these questions, choose the irrelevant sentence in the passage.

(I) In the Netherlands, 1.5 million kilograms of gums end up stuck to the pavement every year and a group of companies is pulling that gum up off the streets, and turning it into pairs of shoes. (II) The latex of the Central American sapodilla tree was first used to mass-produce chewing gum in the 19th century; its plasticity, insolubility in water, and ability to hold a flavour made it an ideal base. (III) A Dutch sustainability company, has invented a compound called Gum-Tec, 20 per cent of which is made from gum prised from the streets of Amsterdam. (IV) They have collaborated with a marketing group and a designer to create GumShoes, which come in bubble gum pink, as well as a more muted black. (V) To celebrate Gumshoe's origins, each sole has an Amsterdam street map printed on its tread.

- (A) I
(B) II
(C) III
(D) IV
(E) V

Önceki
soru

angora
enEnglish

İNGİLİZCE yanıtlarınız

Soru No	Yanıtınız	Anahtar
1		B
7		A
30		B
40		E
64		C
69		D
74		D
80		B

angora
enEnglish