

YDS ÇIKARIM / INFERENCE SORULARI 1

- 1) A thorough research into the causes of Ebola
A) mandatory                      B) complementary
C) outdated                        D) deceptive
E) meticulous
- 2) regardless of gender, influenza threatens everybody
A) as well as                        B) irrespective of
C) on account of                    D) with the help of E) instead of
- 3) on behalf of the newly elected chairman
A) in the name of                  B) irrespective of
C) apart from                        D) as regards
E) thanks to
- 4) as far as the recent figures are concerned
A) in pursuit of                      B) along with
C) by means of                      D) in addition to
E) according to
- 5) as well as clinical studies on new medicine
A) as for                                B) apart from
C) in excess of                        D) in order to
E) in terms of
- 6) studies as to economic growth in China
A) on the verge of                  B) regarding
C) rather than                        D) in response to
E) including
- 7) in charge of the new language department
A) vulnerable to                    B) indifferent to
C) capable of                        D) responsible for
E) appropriate for
- 8) Since most jobs will be replaced by robots, 80 percent of people are probably not going to work for a living.
A) Some people may have to go to work despite computer domination in most workplaces.
B) Robots will have remarkable effects on labor and society.
- 9) No other country has achieved economic goals as much as China has had.
A) China is the most successful country with respect to economic performance.
B) China has performed as well as other countries in term of economic performance.
C) Other countries did not have any success in fulfilling their economic goals.
- 10) Medical researchers have had hardly any progress in fighting against the Ebola disease.
A) Medical researchers have failed to deal with Ebola.
B) Medical researchers have had almost no success in the fight against Ebola.
- 11) Had the consequences of the new drug been foreseen, it could have had remarkable impacts over the fight against Ebola.
A) The new drug has had notable consequences because its effects were precisely predicted.
B) Unfortunately, medicals have failed to realize the noteworthy effects of the new drug.
- 12) China did not center on scientific research for years, as its closest match India did.
A) While India focused on research, China did not.
B) Neither China, nor India focused on scientific research.
- 13) When global temperatures show an upward cycle, so do sea levels.
A) There is a direct relationship between temperature and sea levels.
B) The more sea levels rise, the more temperatures increase.
- 14) An increasing number of countries have started to contribute to the study of developing of vaccines against HIV.
A) make things better
B) make things worse
- 15) The actual causes of global warming are not environmental phenomena but lack of social awareness.
A) It is lack of social awareness that matters most in the problem of global warming.
B) When it comes to global warming, not only environmental but also social concerns matter.
- 16) No other species is as communicative as human beings are.
A) Species other than humans do not communicate at all.
B) Humans are the most communicative beings on the Earth.

YDS ÇIKARIM / INFERENCE SORULARI 2

- 1) In the UK, If English voters vote to leave the EU, this will be enough to take the UK out of Europe against the preference of a majority of Scots, Welsh and Ulster voters.
A) English voters own an overwhelming majority over the other nations in the UK .
B) The majority of Scots, Welsh and Ulster voters will determine if the UK should remain in the EU.
- 2) While being exposed to a myriad of changes in technology, we have become more confronted with changes in global climate, economic system and world.
A) We have been conscious of how the global climate, economic system and world are, whereas we do not know a lot about technology.
B) Just as we are facing changes in technology, we come across changes in global climate, economic system and world.
- 3) A proper anti-cancer drug would function without harming our organs.
A) Anti-cancer drugs function without harming our body.
B) There is no proper or totally harmless anti-cancer drug yet.
- 4) In economic terms, what matters most is not the amount of your savings, but how much you can invest.
A) In economics, investments have a priority over savings.
B) With respect to economic insight, not only your savings, but also the amount of investment is crucial.
- 5) We can remedy our planet's problems, but only if we are willing to redesign wasteful manufacturing processes and give up our throwaway habits.
A) We cannot not solve our planet's problems without altering the way of processing goods and abandoning our throwaway habits.
B) If we are to enhance our manufacturing and throwaway habits, we first have to solve out our planet's problems.
- 6) Interfere — someone's business
A) against B) with
- 7) Step — from office
A) down B) with
- 8) Watch — amazement
A) at B) in
- 9) Rely — scientific facts
A) by B) on
- 10) In response — the crisis
A) to B) on